

The Journal of Public and Professional Sociology
Review Process

1. Submissions to the journal will undergo a blind/anonymous review by 2-3 referees.
2. Referees will submit written evaluations to the Managing Editors for eventual return to the author(s).
3. Submissions may fall into one of the following categories: returned/not accepted; returned for revisions and/or editing; accepted for publication.
4. The expected turn around time from receipt of manuscript to notification of status is no more than three months.
